Entertainment Series

Needs Your Support

Ouachita County Community Concert Association through support from Community Concert Partners and Members has brought more than 288 live performances to our community since 1947. Your Patron-Donor gift helps make possible an exciting series of programs of high quality professional entertainment for our community at a low subscription price as well as cultural student outreach performances for our local students.

We ask that you consider becoming a Patron- Donor to support this worthwhile endeavor. Please consider the information below. Your support is greatly appreciated by our students and community.

Sponsor of a Concert $5,000 +

Each concert and its performance group has a different price contract a board member for prices.

Sponsor of a School Outreach: $500 - $1,000 per performance

Sponsor either a visit by a scheduled performer to an area school on the day of their performance to conduct a mini- performance or a Masterclass for students about their art, or participation by a Camden Area Youth performance group on stage with the concert performer on the evening of the performance. If you have a certain school you would like performer to do outreach at please contact a board member.
